

Embrace Diversity and Inclusion at Our Spring 2019 Activities!

Please join HACC's Gettysburg Campus Diversity Committee at a series of stimulating, free events happening this spring. These events help us EMBRACE (Educate, Model, Broaden, Respect, Accept, Connect, Empathize) our diversity!

Proudly
YOURS.

S.A.F.E. (Student Alliance for Equality) Meetings

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Room 133

Join people from all walks of life to discuss how to better support a LGBTQ+ friend or family member in a respectful environment.

Every other Thursday
beginning Jan. 24 through
May 16 (except March 7)
4-5 p.m.

Pennsylvania African Americans in the Fight for Freedom

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Peter C. Miele, chief operating officer and director of education, Seminary Ridge Museum, illustrates the African-American experience in the Civil War.

Feb. 4,
11 a.m.–Noon

Achieving Success Series

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Darian Davenport, executive director of multicultural engagement at Gettysburg College, discusses his path to success while continuing to impact his community in meaningful ways.

Feb. 12,
11:30 a.m.–12:45 p.m.

Brown Bag Session: Civility and Social Media

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Linda Beck, communications professional and consultant, addresses the growth of the incivility in social media including bullying, trolling and more.

Feb. 13
Noon–1 p.m.

Brown Bag Session: Where Am I Eating and How Did I Get There?

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

This talk explores the connections we have with food and its importance to the spread of culture across the world. Register online at ttsu.me/ucm4c7.

Feb. 26
Noon–1 p.m.

Third Annual Abolitionist Day

Charles Sterner Recreational Building, Gettysburg Recreation Park

March 2
2 p.m.

YWCA of Gettysburg and Adams County Women in History Essay and Art Contest Display

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Library Display Case

March 18-22

Brown Bag Session: Grandma Gatewood's Walk

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Shannon Harvey, vice president, HACC's Gettysburg Campus, highlights Emma Gatewood who in 1962, at the age of 67, became the first female to walk the 2,050 miles of the Appalachian Trail (AT). Ed Riggs, volunteer, Appalachian Trail Museum, talks about today's AT.

March 13
Noon–1 p.m.

Achieving Success Series

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Room 109

Marsha R. Curry-Banks, founder and executive director of Amiracle4Sure, discusses her path to success while she continues to have a significant impact on her community.

March 13
1:15–2:30 p.m.

At Home in Adams County Housing Summit

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Join a discussion on housing challenges and barriers in Adams County featuring Matthew Desmond, Princeton sociologist and 2015 MacArthur "Genius" Award winner and author of the New York Times bestseller and Pulitzer Prize winning book "Evicted." Register at 717-337-4137 or jgastley2@wellspan.org.

March 29
11 a.m.

Achieving Success Series

HACC's Gettysburg Campus, Robert C. Hoffman Community Room

Joanne Carroll, a 20-year veteran of the U.S. Air Force with 20 years serving in the hospitality industry, president of TransCentralPA and political advocate for the rights of the LGBTQ community, shares her struggles and triumphs to success.

April 3
11:30 a.m.–12:45 p.m.

Registration is not required for programs unless otherwise stated.

For more information, visit hacc.edu/Calendar or contact 717-339-3509 or jaalder@hacc.edu.